

Temple Torah of West Boynton Beach

A Celebration of Jewish Living through Learning

Fall Semester

2011 - 2012

Learning is a Lifelong Pleasure
Adult Education Program
November 30, 2011 – March 28, 2012

Temple Torah of West Boynton Beach continues to offer a rich adult education program this coming season with an exciting line-up of lectures, classes, and shabbatons. Lectures are held on Wednesdays, 11:00 am -1:00 pm (coffee and bagels are served prior to each lecture). Classes are held each day from Sunday to Wednesday, mostly morning and afternoons. A few classes are on Wednesday evenings.

Whether interests lie with the Bible, Ancient and Medieval Jewish History, Science versus Religion, Israeli Literature and Politics, Women in Torah, Trope, Conversational Hebrew, Canasta or Facebook, we have something for everyone.

Many of our teachers have developed a loyal following, and their students return to lectures and classes year after year. Congratulations to all of our teachers for volunteering their time and knowledge. Meet our faculty on pages 9-15 of this booklet. A special thanks to all the students who show up every week for lectures and their chosen classes. Success is dependent upon your continued involvement.

Please return the registration form as early as possible so that we may assure space and material for the lectures and classes of your choice.

L'Shanah Tova, may the New Year bring you the blessings of peace, health, joy, and happiness.

Jewish Lifelong Learning enriches our intellectual growth, nourishes our spiritual body, and unites us.
