This Australian movie is based on the memoirs of Adolf Burger, a typographer who was imprisoned in 1942 for forging baptismal certificates to save Jews from deportation.

He was later interned in Sachsenhausen to work on Operation Bernhard. This was a secret plan to forge millions in Bank of England Bank Notes and U.S. dollars.

The movie offers some fascinating issues regarding the moral conflicts resulting from the price we are willing to pay to increase our chances of individual survival.
